I believe that Tim Kaine's appearance also triggers the Equal Time rule. So any qualifying candidate in that race, which might just be Hung Cao, should have Equal Time rights. I see that Comcast filed an Equal Time notice with the FCC for the Harris appearance. I'm trying to see if I can find one for the Kaine appearance. And it is not just the Trump campaign in the Harris situation that would be entitled to comparable time and placement, but all legally qualified candidates. So that might include Jill Stein and it might also include RFK Jr in at least some states, though that is less clear.

One follow up question – Senator Tim Kaine also appeared on SNL last night, is that a problem as well?

Hello Brendan,

The topic is on Kamala's SNL appearance last night – if you have any other talking points to add beyond your tweets, feel free to pass along.
